Waterfowl Program at Dickson Mounds on Dec. 9

LEWISTOWN, IL –Dickson Mounds Museum is hosting a special “Wonderful Waterfowl” program on Saturday, December 9, 2017, from 1:00-3:00 p.m. Participants may learn about the different ducks, geese, and swans that live on or pass through the Emiquon National Wildlife Refuge. Viewing of live ducks and information about current research conducted by the Forbes Biological Station will also be part of the program. Kids ages fifteen and under may participate in a Youth Duck Call Contest. Discount Sales of Matanzas Beach is providing a prize for the winner.

Participants may journey down with a Refuge Ranger to view the wildlife at the South Globe parking lot after the activities at the Museum. Binoculars and spotting scopes will be available for use. Participants should dress appropriately for this outdoor activity.

This program is in collaboration with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service’s Illinois River National Wildlife and Fish Refuge Complex and Forbes Biological Station. Registration is required for the Youth Duck Call Contest. Call 309-535- 2290 or email illinoisriver@fws.gov to register or for more information.
