Illinois Valley Archaeological Society and Dickson Mounds to Host Expedition to Mexico City Sept. 2-9

LEWISTOWN, IL – The Illinois Valley Archaeological Society and Dickson Mounds Museum are co-sponsoring an Expedition to Mexico City September 2-9, 2019, a fully guided tour organized by MexiMayan Travel.

Imagine stepping out of your historic hotel right onto the Zocalo, the ceremonial center of Tenochtitlan, the ancient capital of the Aztec Empire. You can visit the Templo Mayor where Cortez met with Montezuma. Tour the Museum of Anthropology with its unparalleled collection ranging from an Ice Age mammoth kill, through the origins of civilization, the mystical Olmecs, the state level Teotihuacanos, the enigmatic Toltecs, to the Maya and the Aztecs. Mexico City is also the hub for visits to significant sites such as Teotihuacan and Tula.

This tour will be led by archaeologist Lawrence Conrad, who has traveled worldwide and led trips on four continents. Groups have enjoyed Larry's knowledge, affability and sense of humor.

Registration and all tour arrangements are made through MexiMayan Academic Travel. The cost is $2,140 per person (double occupancy) and includes airfare. Deposit and full payment are due by July 10. For full trip details, registration, or more information and complete itinerary, go to www.meximayan.com and click the link "Upcoming Trips."
