

ILLINOIS STATE MUSEUM -LOCKPORT

Contact: John Lustig-Director
john.lustig@illinois.gov

Illinois State Museum presents
(UNTITLED) house
The Diane and Browne Goodwin Collection

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

{Lockport, Illinois, November 1, 2018} – {Illinois State Museum-Lockport} announces their new exhibition (UNTITLED) house featuring art from the collection of Diane and Browne Goodwin of Plainfield, Illinois. This exhibit features work in all disciplines and media (painting, sculpture, photography, printmaking, ceramics, and mixed media) collected over the last (40) forty years. Emphasis is on art acquired in the last (5) five years by emerging artists in the Chicago metropolitan area.

Artists of international acclaim also included in the exhibition;
Josef Albers (1888-1976) Sam Francis (1923-1994) Ed Ruscha (1937-)
Robert Rauschenberg (1925-2008) Winslow Homer (1836-1910)

Exhibition dates, October 28, 2018 through April 15, 2019

“This exhibit represents the Goodwin’s passion, eye, and commitment to engage with artists over a lifetime. Browne Goodwin’s hunt to see “what’s next” is inspiring and serves as a primer for anyone interested in the act of acquiring and collecting work from young artists”

John Lustig-Director, Illinois State Museum-Lockport

	Guest Curators for (UNTITLED) house
Lauren Ball	artinola@gmail.com
Erik Wenzel	erik.c.wenzel@gmail.com
Gwen Zabicki	gwensmail@gmail.com
Robin Dluzen	(Guest Essay) radluzen@gmail.com

ILLINOIS STATE MUSEUM website <http://www.illinoisstatemuseum.org>
Images are available by request.

ILLINOIS STATE MUSEUM-LOCKPORT located at 201 W.10th Street, Norton Building-Lockport, Illinois, 60441
Public hours, W-F, 9:00 am until 5:00pm,
Saturday, Sunday from 11:00 am until 5:00pm

###

